SECRETARY JENKINS HAS LEFT GUTHRIE FOR A TRIP.

IS HE AFTER OUTCELT'S SCALP

A WELL AUTHENTICATED RUMOR HAS IT THAT HE IS.

His Friends Declare That He Is Not Likely to Pose as a "Kicker"-Barnes and Flynn Are Sure That Outcelt Is in No Danger.

GUTHRIE, O. T., July 25 .- (Special.) William M. Jenkins has gone East on a trip of a few weeks, and there is a well authenticated rumor that he will try to get George W. Outcelt's scalp while he is away. Several days ago it was announced from Washington that President McKinley has decided upon Outcelt for census supervisor of Oklahoma, but the Tecumseh man has not yet received his commission. It is now generally believed that Secretary Jenkins will urge the president to reconsider his decision and select some other man. Outcelt received the indorsement of both Governor Barnes and Congressional Dele gate Flynn, but the secretary stood out against him. On the day when the conference at which Barnes and Flynn "got ogether" was held, O. A. Mitscher, of Oklahoma City, who had been Jenkins' candidate, came to Guthrie in answer to a telegraphic message from the secretary. In conversation while here Mr. Mitscher intimated strongly that strong protests would be sent to Washington in an effort to prevent Outcelt's appointment. Mitscher d not connect the secretary's name with this declaration, however, and Jenkins later asserted that while he could not indorse Outcelt, and would urge the appointment of another man, he would not seek success for his candidate by attacking Outcelt. Secretary Jenkins' friends — most of them-insist that he has never been known

When Mr. Jenkins left Guthrie it was announced that he was going to Indiana to visit his wife's parents. Mrs. Jenkins accompanied him. It will be remembered in this connection that a few months ago
Mr. Jenkins went away on a little trip
"up into Kansas," and that before his return Judge J. R. Scott was named as receiver of the Perry land office, the Washington telegram which announced his appointment being signed "W. M. Jenkins."

Both Governor Barnes and Delegate

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., July 25.—(Special.) The Republicans held their county convention here to-day, and elected fourconvention here to-day, and elected four-teen delegates to the congressional con-vention, which meets here on August 4. The delegates were instructed to vote for J. W. Vosholl, of Osage county, for the nomination. He made the race in 1898 and the convention thought he should be en-titled to the nomination at this time, when they believe he can be elected. The admin-istration of McKinley was indorsed and his war policy was commended.

Kansas Engineers Organize.

TOPEKA, July 25.—(Special.) The stationary engineers of Kansas are preparing to organize unions to co-operate with other branches of organized labor in Kansas. The movement was started by the organization of a union in this city to-day by Secretary Johnson, of the state society of labor. The union in this city has twenty-five charter members. The following are the officers: A. H. Nooney, president; Fred Baum, vice president, and Frank Parkinson, secretary-treasurer.

Refuses to Arbitrate, Preferring Reach an Agreement by Direct Negotiation - London Daily Mail Insists Upon Arbitration.

WASHINGTON, July 25 .- The main topic of discussion at the cabinet meeting to-day was the Alaskan boundary dispute. Sec retary Hay explained the status of the direct negotiations now in progress between himself and Mr. Tower, the British charge, and said he was not without hope that this negotiation. Great Britain now seems willing to consider the proposal of the United States to give Canada the privilege of a port of entry into the Dominion, while retaining absolute sovereignty over the Lynn canal, and it is around this sort of a proposition that the hope of a settlement nov hovers.

Humphrey, of Junction City, and Mrs. W. A. Johnston, and E. Wilder, of Topeka, are members. This commission attends to the loaning of the libraries although the work is still under direction of the federated clubs.

The traveling library movement was started about one year ago, when nearly 18,000 volumes were donated for this purpose. These were made up into little assorted libraries containing about fifty books in each case. Among the complete libraries that have been equipped and given to the federation is one from Mrs. Noble Prentis, of Kansas City, and another from the Junto Club, of Emporia, of which Mrs. Hattle S. Graves is president and to which belongs Mrs. L. B. Kellogg, who is conducting the Round Table course of studies at the assembly.

On the programme for to-morrow is a lecture in the afternoon by John Temple Graves upon "The New Woman and the Old," and one in the evening by Dr. John P. D. John, of Depauw university, upon the subject, "Did God Make Man or Did Man Make God?"

Settlement by direct negotiation will be the easiest, as well as the most satisfactory, method of disposing of this troublesome question, and such settlement, from the acts developed at to-day's cabinet meeting, is regarded as by no means out of the realm of probability.

LONDON, July 26.—Despite disquieting reports, it is believed at the British foreign office that the Alaskan boundary dispute is trending towards settlement.
